

CITIZENSHIP

The rights and responsibilities associated with social, political and economic communities that an individual demonstrates as an engaged and knowledgeable member of society.

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS UC STUDENTS ACHIEVE IN THE AREA OF CITIZENSHIP:

Associate Degree: Foundational Skills and Knowledge

- Describes social institutions—economic, governmental, and cultural—as they are realized in American society
- Identifies the connections between social institutions and historical patterns and global contexts

Baccalaureate Degree: Advanced Skills and Knowledge

- Demonstrates historical literacy in the study of one or more historical periods
- Demonstrates global literacy in the focused study of one or more global issues or regions
- Integrates civic, historical and global literacy into community-involvement activities and projects

Graduate Degree

Synthesis and Application of Skills and Knowledge at the Professional level

- Applies professional expertise to community-involvement projects in a sustained way to have a long-term impact on the community