

Book Order Policy

The federal mandates for student access requires that books and other learning material be available to students at the time of registration for the course. ADA requires that books be available at least six weeks prior to the start of classes. Faculty members are responsible for working with the Program Directors, Department Chairs and Deans to have this material by no later than two weeks before the advisement period begins.