

Your 2019-2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. We are required by law to review selected FAFSA applications with actual tax documentation before disbursing federal student aid. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. Complete ALL sections of this worksheet, attach all required tax documentation, and return to the Financial Aid Office promptly. Incomplete forms and missing tax documents will delay processing. Once verification is completed, there may or may not be changes to your financial aid award. You will be notified of any changes. Failure to comply with this request will result in federal/state award(s) being cancelled.

Instructions for Section C

Tax Filers: The best and preferred way to verify your 2017 tax information is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) within the FAFSA. For security and privacy, all information transferred from the DRT feature will be masked, and students will see “Transferred from the IRS.” Follow the instructions to determine if you are eligible to use the DRT to transfer 2017 IRS income tax information into the FAFSA. Married students who file separate 2017 IRS income tax returns, the DRT cannot be used, and the tax information will be entered manually exactly as it appeared on your tax return. Do this for both student and spouse, if applicable.

If you were unable to use the DRT at the time the FAFSA was filed, you may provide a copy of the 2017 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) for each tax filer. If you are married, or unmarried and living together, and filed separate returns, tax transcripts are required. If a tax return transcript is unavailable, please contact the financial aid office for more information.

A 2017 IRS Tax Return Transcript may be obtained through the following methods:

- Online Request – www.irs.gov -> “Get My Tax Record” -> “Get Transcript Online” or “Get Transcript by Mail.”
- Telephone Request – 1.800.908.9946 -> Request an IRS Tax Return Transcript, (NOT the IRS Tax Account Transcript).
- Paper Request Form – IRS Form 4506T-EZ or IRS Form 4506-T

Amended Tax Returns: If you and/or your spouse filed an amended 2017 IRS income tax return (1040X), submit a signed copy in addition to a 2017 tax return transcript.

Tax Extensions: If you and/or your spouse, if married filed a tax extension for 2017 and have not yet filed, please contact our office for next steps.

Non-Tax Filers: If you and/or your spouse, if married, did not, will not, and were not required to file a 2017 IRS income tax return, request and attach a copy of you and/or your spouse’s 2017 IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter. To obtain a 2017 verification non-filing letter, go to www.irs.gov, select “Get My Tax Record,” click “Get Transcript Online.” Attach copies of any 2017 W-2(s) of the non-tax filer.

C. Student Income Information: Check the box that applies.

- My income was reported on my FAFSA using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. Date DRT was used ___/___/___.
- I filed a 2017 IRS income tax return but could not use the DRT. Attached is a copy of my 2017 IRS tax return transcript.
- I did NOT work, did not and was not required to file a 2017 IRS income tax return.
- I did NOT, and was not required to file an IRS return, BUT earned income in 2017. Complete the following chart and attach applicable 2017 W-2(s).

Student Source of Income for Non-Tax Filers	2017 Amount Earned	W-2 Attached (Yes or no)

D. High School Completion Status: You must submit documentation of high school completion or its equivalent. Check the box of the document you will attach to this worksheet:

- Copy of the student’s high school diploma.
- Copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A state certificate or transcript received by the student after passing a State-authorized exam (GED test, HiSET, TASC or other State-authorized exam) that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma.
- Academic transcript of a successfully completed two-year program acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the Secondary School Leaving Certificate or other similar document.
- For a homeschooled student in a state where the law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- For a homeschooled student in a state where state law does NOT require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
