

ART MINOR

Professor Terry Floyd, Coordinator

Mission Statement

The Art minor strives to promote creativity and innovation within the university and educate students to express and communicate their ideas through various visual mediums. It offers students the opportunity to mature as creative artists and thinkers.

Program Outcomes

The graduate will:

1. Apply art fundamentals.
2. Apply technical knowledge, design skills, and conceptual development in one or more media of visual arts.
3. Use visual media for expression.
4. Compose in written and oral form, knowledge of art history and how it has developed over time.
5. Evaluate, reflect upon, and assess the characteristics and merits of personal work and the work of others.
6. Create a body of work that reflects an understanding of professional practices in the field.

The Art minor requires that the student complete 21 credits of courses in Art and Digital Media Design.
