SUMMER SCHOOL FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION SHEET

To receive financial aid for summer classes:

- A 2021-2022 FAFSA, 2022-2023 FAFSA and Summer 2022 Financial Aid Application should be on file in the Financial Aid Office (FAO).
- You must be in a degree-granting program at UC.
- All verification documents must be received or there will be a delay in payment.

UC students enrolling at other institutions must complete a consortium agreement to be sent from our FAO to host school. Students may be responsible for payment at host institution until disbursement at UC.

Students admitted as Non-degree are not eligible for any financial aid.

Federal Aid Eligibility:

- To be eligible for the Direct Loan Program you must be enrolled in a minimum 6 credit hours.
- You must be making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). Please see the MYUC student portal for SAP policy.
- If you are a first-time borrower for the summer term you will need to complete Loan Entrance Counseling and sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN) before disbursement. Please visit www.studentloans.gov to complete these requirements.

The summer term will be a TRAILER for all in-seat Charleston campus students. Any unused portions of federal aid from the 2021-2022 academic year can be used for the summer session depending on enrollment and eligibility.

The summer term will be a HEADER for all students enrolled in a year-round program at all locations. The summer term will begin the 2022-2023 academic year and aid will be split evenly between the summer, fall, and spring terms based on estimated enrollment and expected graduation.

Students only enrolled in sessions that end before July 1st must use 2021-2022 funds.

Students only enrolled in sessions that begin after July 1st must use 2022-2023 funds.

You can check your eligibility and awards by logging into your MYUC student portal. It is the student's responsibility that all required documents have been submitted.
